Welcome to the BOUNTIFUL BERKS MARKET GUIDE!

Throughout history, agriculture has been a cornerstone of Berks County's economy, culture and community.

Today's consumers want to know where their food comes from, and our Berks County farmers are meeting that demand. This guide has over 250 locations, whether it is a small roadside farm stand selling a single product, a farm store with a wide variety of products, or a large farm market that has multiple vendors with multiple products, you can find it here. We encourage you to explore this guide, visit new places, and take time to appreciate the open space and scenic areas during the journey. We are very fortunate in Berks County to have such a wide variety of products available, and we are grateful to the family farms and food producers that provide them for us.

Use this guide to search out your favorite produce and refer to the chart included to help identify its peak season, or to find a unique product that could become a new favorite. We have included some seasonal recipes to showcase some products.

Thank you for supporting local agriculture and enjoy the Bounty of Berks!

*Kimberly Fies
Executive Director
Berks County Department of Agriculture*

Photo and recipe adapted from damndelicious.net/2019/04/18/mexican-street-tacos/

INSTRUCTIONS

In a medium bowl, combine soy sauce, lime juice, 1 tbsp olive oil, garlic, chili powder, cumin and oregano.

In a gallon size Ziploc bag or large bowl, combine soy sauce mixture and steak; marinate for at least 1 hour up to 4 hours, turning the bag occasionally.

Heat remaining olive oil in a large cast iron skillet over medium high heat. Add steak and marinade, and cook, stirring often, until steak has browned and marinade has reduced, about 5-6 minutes, or until desired doneness.

Serve steak in tortillas, topped with onion, cilantro and lime.

ROASTED ROOT VEGETABLES

Mary Shah

WHAT YOU'LL NEED

2 Beets, peeled and chopped into 1-inch chunks

1 large Carrot, roll cut into 1-inch chunks

3 Parsnips, chopped into 1-inch chunks

1 medium Sweet Potato, chopped into 1-inch chunks

1 Turnip, chopped into 1-inch chunks

Extra-virgin olive oil, for drizzling

1 tbsp chopped fresh Rosemary, or 1 tsp dried

1 tbsp chopped fresh Sage leaves, or 1 tsp dried

1 tbsp fresh Thyme leaves, or 1 tsp dried

Sea Salt and freshly ground Black Pepper

INSTRUCTIONS

Preheat the oven to 425°F and line two baking sheets with parchment paper.

Place the beets and carrots on one baking sheet and the parsnips, sweet potato, and turnip on the other. Drizzle the vegetables with olive oil and sprinkle with the rosemary, sage, thyme, pinches of salt, and several grinds of pepper. Toss to coat and spread evenly on the baking sheets. Roast for 25 to 50 minutes, or until tender and browned around the edges. The parsnips, sweet potato, and turnip will bake for less time. The beet and carrot will roast longer.

INSTRUCTIONS

Mix dry ingredients, cut butter into dry ingredients until mixture resembles breadcrumbs. Add sour cream, milk/cream and lemon zest. Add blueberries at end to minimize crushing. Pat dough into an 8-inch circle. Cut into 8 triangles. Bake on parchment paper at 350 degrees for 20 minutes. Drizzle with mixture of confectioner's sugar, milk/cream and vanilla. Dust with sanding sugar if desired.
